About Arena Options

Arena Options is at the forefront of young people's supported housing provision in the North West. Your House is the Resettlement/Floating Support Service attached to Our House supported living scheme.

Our Aim

Your House specialises in providing a floating support service in the community for young women aged 16-25 years, on housing related issues and greater choice to young vulnerable women.

What We Do

Your House staff will help you manage your tenancy in the community by giving advice and support including:

- Rent queries
- Finding furniture.
- Managing finances and accessing welfare benefits.
- Helping you stay safe in your home.
- Helping you gain access to other services relating to housing needs, including health and social activities.
- Developing independent living skills.

- Directing you to community resources.
- Finding a job/training course.
- Identifying utility suppliers.
- Arranging connection of utilities.
- General advice and support.
